Your Hero's Journey

The hero you have chosen did not become this hero overnight! They had to work very long and hard, and overcome some challenge(s) or obstacle(s) to achieve their stature. Following the "monomyth" idea thought about by Joseph Campbell, begin to chart out your hero's path from their ordinary life to one of great acclaim.

Status Quo: Describe their ordinary world. What was their life like before they were a hero?
Call to Adventure: What is the challenge that disrupts the status quo?
Departure: What is the "special world" they have to enter?
Trials: What are the experiences and actions they have to take? What do they have to do?
Approach & Crisis: Was there an ultimate battle to overcome challenge?
Treasure: Did they succeed? What did they earn as a result of solving the challenge in the strange world?
Result & Return: Did they return to their ordinary world? Did they come back automatically a hero?
New Life & Resolution: What is life like after they return to the "ordinary world"?
